FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY, July 21-6 P. M. The usual dulness of a Saturday in summer has been experienced in Wall street to-day, and both brokers and erators have been more cager to leave town by boat than to secure profits, which the great majority their eyes. Stock speculators are indeed almost universally holding for a rise, and in some instances they are doubtless pinching themselves in other respects in order to accomplish their purpose. The probabilities at the same time favor their success, for with a superabundant supply of money and the speculative spirit strongly on the "bull" side of the market, as it is er. It matters not whether prices are selling above ere is only one way for them to go so long as the ulative tide continues rising, and high water mark not be reached for some weeks, and possibly for some months to come. Meanwhile many the impecunious crewd who clamor for gain at the shrine of Mammon in Broad street may fill their pockets with "filthy lucre," but ten to one they will ose it again when the tide begins to ebb, and the spoils will be divided among the brokers, who, in reality, live rould be to prey upon each other on the dog eat dog rinciple, and sometimes after the amiable example set day last Mr. John E. Merrill, residing at No. 1 Broadway, was riding down West street in one of the cars of the Belt Railrond, when he was surrounded by three men, one of whom held in his hand a newspaper, which he repeatedly threat close into Mr. Merrill's face. The latter pushed away the paper once or twice without asspecting anything wrong, but on leaving the car soon afterwards, he made the unpleasant discovery that a diamond pin, valued at $400, had been plucked from his shirt beacom. Yesterday afternoon Detectives Macdougall and Glinor, who had been in search of this gang of pickpockets, arrested a professional operator known as Waiter Brown, and, on being confronted with Mr Merrill, the latter identified him as the man who thrust the newspaper in his face just previous to discovering his loss. Mr. Merrill made an affidavit against the prisoner, charging him with the larceny. Justice Dowling committed the accused to the Tembs for trial. Brown is twenty two years of acc, was born in Connecticut, and says he lives in Worth street. His confederates are still at large.

Four desperate tooking young men, heavily froned, giving their names as James Scanlon, James Jones, James McCauley and Aaron Seaman, were vesterday brought before Justice Dowling by detectives Golden and Farley, on suspicion of being concerned in breaking into the bonded warehouse, on the Cunard dock, Jersey Cive, a few weeks since, and stealing a case of velvets valued at $4,000 in gold. From information received by detectives Golden and Farley they first arrested Seaman, who at first was disinclined to make any disclosures, but after a brief incarceration, he became more communicative, and stated that Scanlon, Jones and McCauley robbed the Cunard warehouse, and employed him to sell the scolen goods among his numerous German acquaintances in this city, at the same time agreeing to pay him a continuity of the control warehouse, and above recently came to him with samples of sixteen pieces of silk and eight pieces of velvet, nearly $3,000 worth of which had been stolen from the United States Bonded warehouse, 341 Greenwich street, on the hight of the 14th instant, and desired him to sell the goods. The silks belonged to Messrs, Edmund Yard & Co., merchants, at 140 Desars.

Dafmann & Co., doing business in Pars fplace. Two pieces of the velvets atolen from the Jersey City warehouse were found on the premises of Mrs. Ginn Greenwich street, and they are said to have been identified. As yet there have been no affidavits made against the prisoners, and there seems to be serious apprehensions about positively identifying the goods which have been recovered. Justice Dowling committed the prisoners to the Tombs for examination.

A Hard Casr.—Joseph Riley, arrested by officers Murphy and Heidelburg, of the Nineteenth precinet, was brought before Justice Connolly, on Friday morning, charged with committing an indecent assault upon his aunt, Margaret Riley, Margaret states that he first solicited her, and upon her refusal committed the seault. The officers say, that being tupon post in East Forty-ninth street, and hearing cries coming from No. 199, they proceeded to the house and found Margaret struggling with Joseph. Upon the officers' entering the room Joseph went to a bureau, and, drawing a pistol, threatened to shoot them, but was speedily placed Aors de comfet by the policemen's clabs. He was held to answer both for the assault upon his aunt and upon the officers. Joseph is already under bonds to answer to a charge of indecent assault upon another man's wife in Landman's Park a short time since.

Before Commissioner Osborn.

Yesterday the further hearing of the case of Augustus Green letty one of the contribute attached to Marshall State of Augustus

P. Green, lately one of the constables attached to Mar-shal Murray's office, who is charged with having permitted the escape of M. Lamirande, was resumed. It will be remembered that Lamirande had been accused of of the Bank of Poictiers. France, and that he escape from the custody of Mr. Green. The particulars of the case have been already fully detailed in the Henaud.

William Moore, keeper of the county jail, was cross examined by Mr. Donahoe. He said:—I do not keep the permits; a great many persons admitted to see prisoner stay all the day long; my prison is also the debtors William Thompson sworn:—I am attached to the Marshal's office as chief clerk; I know the defendant; I was the 3d of July, 1866; during the absence of the Marshal we received a letter from Mr. Coudert, the counsel of the French government; I have that letter; I produce it (the letter was put in evidence and read); on receipt of that letter, which was dared the 28th of June, 1868, I inquired of the criminal clerk in the office who had charge of Lamirande; he informed me it was Mr. Horton and Mr. Green, the defendant; we wrote a letter to Condort Brothers in reply; I produce a copy of the reply; I did not myself give any instructions to Mr. Green; I heard one of the criminal clerk, Mr. Domahami, give Mr. Green instructions as follows:—that the Marshal had received a latter from Condert Brothers, and that he must be very careful of the prisoner; he repeated to Green the substance of the letter. (The letter was one enclosing a commonication from the French Consul, stating that there was a plot on foot for the escape of Lamirande, and asking the marshal to take every precaution in the matter. The Marshal's reply was that every precaution in the matter. The Marshal's reply was that every precaution to the clerks to tell the officers in charse about this letter.

Adolphe Domahhant, clerk in the Marshal's effice, corroborated the preceding testimony. He told Green there was a job put up to get Lamirande away, and cautioned him to be careful of him; never save Green in structions or permission to take Lamirande to any other place but the jait don's remember there was anything said to Green about every bin nesistance if necessary.

To Mr. Denahoe—I intended to state to Green as to the job stated in the letter. I told Green shout the plot. The case was aljourned to Thursday next.
